

it MATTERS

Laws and regulations are passed every day that affect your access to quality health care. With rising health care costs, it's more important now than ever to fully understand how these laws and regulations affect you and your family, friends and neighbors.

For the latest information on state and national legislation and regulations on the health care industry and to see how they will affect access to care, visit www.mycarematters.com.

mycare MATTERS
www.mycarematters.com

Because it MATTERS.